BIRTH PARENT RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES-PRIVATE FORM

As a Birth Parent in the State of Illinois, you have the right:

1. To have your own attorney represent you. The prospective adoptive parents may agree to pay for the cost of your attorney in a manner consistent with Illinois law, but they are not required to do so.

2. To be treated with dignity and respect at all times and to make decisions free from coercion and pressure.

3. To receive counseling before and after signing a Final and Irrevocable Consent to Adoption (“Consent”), a Final and Irrevocable Consent to Adoption by a Specified Person or Persons: Non-DCFS Case (“Specified Consent”), or a Consent to Adoption of Unborn Child (“Unborn Consent”). The prospective adoptive parents may agree to pay for the cost of counseling in a manner consistent with Illinois law, but they are not required to do so.

4. To ask to be involved in choosing your child’s prospective adoptive parents and to ask to meet them.

5. To ask your child’s prospective adoptive parents any questions that pertain to your decision to place your child with them.

6. To see your child before signing a Consent or Specified Consent.

7. To request contact with your child and/or the child’s prospective adoptive parents, with the understanding that any promises regarding contact with your child or receipt of information about the child after signing a Consent, Specified Consent, or Unborn Consent cannot be enforced under Illinois law.

8. To receive copies of all documents that you sign and have those documents provided to you in your preferred language.

9. To request that your identifying information remain confidential, unless required otherwise by Illinois law or court order, and to register with the Illinois Adoption Registry and Medical Information Exchange.

10. To work with an adoption agency or attorney of your choice, or change said agency or attorney, provided you promptly inform all of the parties currently involved.

11. To receive, upon request, a written list of any promised support, financial or otherwise, from your attorney or the attorney for your child’s prospective adoptive parents.

12. To delay signing a Consent, Specified Consent, or Unborn Consent if you are not ready to do so.

IF YOU DO NOT RECEIVE ANY OF THE RIGHTS DESCRIBED IN THIS FORM, IT SHALL NOT BE A BASIS TO REVOKE A CONSENT, SPECIFIED CONSENT, OR UNBORN CONSENT.
13. To decline to sign a Consent, Specified Consent, or Unborn Consent even if you have received financial support from the prospective adoptive parents.

As a Birth Parent in the State of Illinois, you have the responsibility:

1. To carefully consider your reasons for choosing adoption.

2. To voluntarily provide all known medical, background, and family information about yourself and your immediate family to your child’s prospective adoptive parents or their attorney. For the health of your child, you are strongly encouraged, but not required, to provide all known medical, background, and family history information about yourself and your family to your child’s prospective adoptive parents or their attorney.

3. (Birth Mothers only) To accurately complete an Affidavit of Identification, which identifies the father of the child when known, with the understanding that a Birth Mother has a right to decline to identify the Birth Father.

4. To not accept financial support or reimbursement of pregnancy related expenses simultaneously from more than one source.
